

Client Rights

As a client of an Oregon Licensee you have the following rights:

- To expect that a licensee has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
- To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
- To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics;
- To report complaints to the Board;
- To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services; and
- To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions:
 - 1) Reporting suspected child abuse;
 - 2) Reporting imminent danger to client or others;
 - 3) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company, or other relevant agencies;
 - 4) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and
 - 5) Defending claims brought by client against licensee;
